COMMANDER OF FORREST TO WED

LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON THANKSGIVING NIGHT.

Col. Carey Brown, Veteran of the Marne to Marry Miss Law. of New York.

Col. Carey H. Brown, command-ing officer at Camp Forrest, will leave Chattanooga on Thanksziving night for Washington, D. C., where he goes to wed Miss Derryle Elizabeth Law o' that city.

The wedding will take place on Saturday of this wack, Nov. 30, at the Epiphany Episcopal church in Washington and elaborate plans have been made for the occasion.

been made for the occasion. Col. Brown spent several months at the front during the war and returned from France last August when he was put on duty in the office of the chief of engineers at Washington and is now commanding officer at Camp Forrest, Ga. The colonel's home is in Zanesville, O., and it might be well to say in passing that he is probably one of the youngest colonels in the United States army. The bride to be is the daughter of Mrs. Alston M. Law of Washington and New York. Miss Law, accompanied by her mother, went to Washington during the first part of he war as a volunteer war worker and was made executive secretary the public service reserve. United States Employment service, departent of labor, for three months, and since April has been private secre-tary to John B. Densmore, directorgeneral of the United States Employnent service.

After the wedding Col. Brown will After the wedding Col. Blown in bring his bride to Chattanooga to reside during his stay at Camp For-rest and they will be at home after Dec. 15 at one of the officers' houses located at Fort Oglethorpe.

While Col. Brown has been in command of the camp at Forrest a comparatively short while, he has made a large number of friends in Chattancoga among the business men. He attended the dinner that was given at the Hotel Patten in he of Ambassador Henry Morgenthau during his visit to Chattanooga, and he says that it was at this dinner that he first had a taste of the de-lightful southern hospitality which never shall forget.

It was at the suggestion of Col. Brown that, an officers' club be erected at the camp, and it is in order to see the opening of this club and to be present and witness the big Thanksgiving demonstration at Forrest on Thanksgiving day that the colonel is remaining until Thanks-

Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist church, Mrs. Percy Jackson, leader, met Monday afternoon in the church parlor. An election of a secretary was made necessary by the resignation of Miss Bessic Woodward. Mrs. T. S. Lansford was elected to fill the vacancy. The circle decided to adopt a French war orphan.

Miss Mayme Nixon, benevolent chairman, read the report for the month past. This included twenty garments made for the children of the Vine Street orphanage, a $10 donation for the needy, $40 contributed to the united war workers' campaign, to which three members also gave active service, and two more were block chairmen in the canned goods canvass. One member procured 100 Christmas cards for the Chattanooga soldier boys wherever they are. One sweater and one pair of socks had been knitted for soldiers. Mrs. W. T. Tyler conducted the mission study, which included a book on "Missions in Liberia." It was decided to take up the study of a new book on home missions entitled "The Call of the South." About twenty members were present.
